WHAT HAS BECOME OF—

THE LAD WHO USED TO LUG HOME A SLATE EVERY NIGHT

RED HAT LANDED JOHN IN THE HANDS OF SLEUTHS

John White's refusal to buy his lady love a new hat led to his downfall yesterday. Three months ago White disappeared from Grand Rapids, Mich., leaving behind him a wife and child. With him went a lady with a red hat. Detectives from Grand Rapids trailed the couple. Yesterday they caught sight of the red hat at the general delivery window. They trailed it. It led to the Park Row station and to White. Detectives nabbed him. The woman is said to pose as White's wife.

ARREST STRIKING ACTORS

The police are still aiding the vaudeville trust in breaking the actors' union. Yesterday Mrs. John Burke, 57 W. Ontario; Mary St. Julien, 522 N. Clark; Wm. Burke, 522 N. Clark, and Wm. St. Allen, 630 N. Clark, were arrested in front of the Windsor theater, 1235 N. Clark, and Edna Sylvas, 417 N. Clark; Mamie Fineberg, 64 W. Huron; Wm. Hewitt, 14 W. Erie, and Jas. Hughes were arrested in front of the Academy of Music, 16 S. Halsted. They were picketing. These two theaters are having trouble with union labor.

Two bullets from Patrolman Wm. Beehan's revolver took John Slomina in the right knee and left side early this morning. Slomina and his pal, Leo Kuhor, ran away from the policeman after a hold-up. Both are under suspicion of complicity in other crimes.
